

Contra Costa County Voluntary Organizations Active In Disasters Workshop

COOPERATION | COMMUNICATION | COORDINATION | COLLABORATION

Preparing for the "new normal"

Are You Ready?

Come join VOAD!!

What is VOAD? Contra Costa County Voluntary Organizations Active in Disaster (CCC VOAD) is a coalition of faith-based, non-profit, and business organizations who share knowledge and resources throughout the disaster cycle—mitigation, preparedness, response and recovery—to help disaster survivors and their communities.

Why Should You Attend? CCC VOAD has a general membership to bring voluntary organizations together to promote the mission of cooperation, coordination, communications and collaboration. Part of this workshop is devoted to getting to know the various organizations in the county and the services they provide.

Presentations:

Expert Panel Discussion	California Standard Emergency Management System	Networking Lunch	Disaster Mission
We will have a panel of local businesses, faith-based and non-profit experts who have first-hand experience in dealing with disasters; how they overcame them, learned from them and responded to help the community. Information will be provided on how to sustain a Continuity Of Operations during "blue skies" for those "grey sky" days.	We will go over the Standardized Emergency Management System, how it is utilized how it can be useful.	Lunch and light snacks will be provided so you can connect with local organizations and resources in our county. Building relationships before a disaster is a fundamental ingredient of success during a disaster. Knowing your partners during a disaster saves lives and helps a community to recover more quickly.	We will walk you through the simple process of developing a Disaster Mission.

Next Steps:

At the end of the workshop, we will wrap up the day's activities, discuss what to address next time and have a quick raffle of some disaster kit items.
